

Philippe Camus is Senior Advisor of Evercore, Chairman of Aptamir (Biotech) and founding member of Fondation Lumiere (Necker Hospital in Paris).

Philippe Camus left the Lagardère Group in 2012. He was co-managing partner of the Lagardère Group and Chairman and CEO of Lagardère North America.

Philippe Camus was appointed Chairman of the Board of Directors of Alcatel-Lucent in October 2008. To lead the Group as it prepares for the proposed combination with Nokia, and for the duration of the transition period, Philippe Camus was appointed Chairman and CEO as of September 2015 until June 2016.

He began his career in 1972 in the Finance Department of the Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations. After being Financial Analyst and Portfolio Manager, he was appointed Head of the Fixed Income Directorate in 1976. Under his leadership the Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations improved its operating efficiency on the bond market generating higher profit and modernizing the French bond market.

He joined the Lagardère Group in 1982 as Executive Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Matra Group until 1992 and Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Banque Arjil until 1993. He was appointed Managing Director of the Lagardère Group in 1993 and was co-managing partner of Lagardère SCA from 1998 to June 2012. As Managing Director of Lagardère, he managed the restructuring of the Matra Group (Aerospace and High Technology) by implementing a tight financial and reporting governance structure and by divesting units to focus the activities on the core business. He personally managed every acquisition, merger, partnership or divestiture realized by Matra from 1982 until 1998. Starting in 1986, he engineered the transformation of Matra and Hachette into an integrated company, thus founding the Lagardère Group. As part of this he managed the rescue of the Hachette Group after the bankruptcy of one of its ventures in television broadcasting (La Cinq).

His expertise in international negotiations and management, led him to conduct and oversee the work bringing to the creation of EADS, (now Airbus) the 2nd largest aerospace company worldwide. First named Chief Operating Officer, then Chief Executive Officer of Aérospatiale - Matra in 1999, he was Chief Executive Officer of EADS from 2000 until 2005.

Philippe Camus was a member of the French supervisory authority for the financial markets from 1996 to 2001. He has been President of GIFAS (French Aerospace Industries Association) from 2001 to 2005. He was a director of Schlumberger from 2007 to 2012 , of Accor from 2006 to 2008 and of Credit Agricole from 2005 to 2009.

In July 2005, Philippe Camus was made Officier of the French Légion d'Honneur and in May 2004, he was awarded the Cross of the German Merit Order (Verdienstkreuz - 1 Klasse). Philippe Camus has an Economics and Finance degree from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris, a Physics degree from the Ecole Normale Supérieure (rue d'Ulm) and a doctorate in Actuarial Sciences.
